

Intellectual Property Services

The intellectual property of a business is often one of its most important assets. Protecting your intellectual property can be a tedious, but necessary, process. At Caravel Law, our lawyers bring years of rigorous training and practical insight to the table. Having worked as in-house lawyers responsible for protecting their company's IP portfolio, and at IP-focused law firms, our team is among the best in the business.

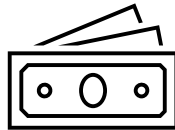

We can help your company protect its trademarks, patents and other intellectual property so that you can effectively and efficiently monetize your ideas. These are just a few of our services:

Trademark Applications and Management

Copyright Advice and Registration

Intellectual Property Licensing and Monetization

Freedom to Operate Analyses

Strategic Review
and Management of IP Portfolio
